My professional stage name is Grego, I am the initiator, the composer and pianist of the work.

The girl featured is a 19yo amateur singer and beginner actor talent from Budapest.

The sound is by Tamás Zányi from Oscar-Winner "Son of Saul", the clip is directed by acclaimed Hungarian film director, András Fésős with cinematographer and editor Richárd Kiss, all from Budapest, Hungary.

Transcending Pain and Grief into Hope:

During the first 30 seconds of the clip we see the Hebrew title, hear a Muslim muezzin and a Christian churchbell, leading up to a visual composition portraying the girl at the Wailing Wall of Jerusalem. This is a strong statement for desired coexistence and peace between the three main Abrahamic religions.
